THE GERMAN PRINCE

And His Nine Defeated, But Not Dis-mayed—Score 3 to 2

Larry's Elks put up a pretty and fast game of ball yesterday and the Maysville Regulars, though victorious, have nothing to crow over.

The game was an even one throughout the twelve innings and it was a toss of a copper up to the very last minute which of the two clubs would win out.

There were quite a number among the big crowd present who expressed the opinion that if the umpire had decided his close decisions squarely, that the German Prince would have gained a decided victory over his opponents. However that may be, the Elks have the satisfaction of knowing that they made the Regulars play ball from start to finish, and gave the spectators their money's worth.

At the end of the twelfth inning the score stood 3 to 2 in favor of the Regulars.

MASON CIRCUIT COURT.

Ellis Middleton et al., on petition ex-parte. Pursuant to a judgment rendered herein September 7th, 1907, the undersigned will sell at public outcry on the premises in the Murphysville Precinct, in Mason county, Kentucky, at 2 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, Sept. 21st, 1907,

A tract of land situated in the Murphysville Precinct, Mason county, Kentucky, on the waters of the N. run fork of Licking river; beginning at a stone in the road in front of the house; then with the road N. 1/4, E. 40 poles to a stake in the road; thence S. 89 1/2, W. 72 poles to a stake; thence S. 2 1/2, W. 64 poles to a stake in a line of the whole tract; thence with a line of the whole tract N. 84 1/2, E. 31 poles; thence N. 23 1/2, E. 10 poles and 10 links to the place of beginning; containing 28 acres, including the mansion house, etc.; same being the dower set apart to the widow of James Cole, deceased, in the proceedings had in the Mason Circuit Court for the purpose of assigning dower and dividing the land of said deceased, and which passed, at the death of said widow, to the petitioners herein as the heirs-at-law of said deceased.

Said property will be sold on a credit of six and twelve months. The purchaser must execute sale bonds with good security, bearing legal interest from date of sale until paid, and a lien will be retained on the property sold. Said property cannot be divided without materially impairing its value and is being sold in division of the proceeds, and the owners thereof. CLARENCE L. SALLER, Master Commissioner. Blington & Cochran, Attorneys. 1831

It pays to be a baseball winner. The Philadelphia Athletics played to $35,450 last week, getting as their share $23,000. At that rate it takes a very short time to pay the salaries of the club for the season. The club's profits for the season are estimated at $150,000. The great American game is a money-maker all right.

THE 2-cent fare is coming. The arguments of the past twelve months have not shaken the contention that, speaking generally, the country has grown to the position where the 2-cent fare can be made profitable by the main lines. It will be resisted for awhile, but the resistance is feeble and it will disappear in a short time.—Louisville Post.

GROVER CLEVELAND, the grand old man of Democracy and the only living ex-President of the United States, is passing slowly but surely from the stage of action. Every American citizen should honor and respect Mr. CLEVELAND for his honesty and integrity of purpose. He is an able, but was often a misguided statesman. It is the irony of fate that his enemies are nearly all in his own party. That's the reason he should be loved for the enemies he has made.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

1. We approve the policies and commend the ability, integrity and courage of President Roosevelt and his administration, and without expressing a preference for any candidate, favor the selection by the next national convention for president of one in full accord with these policies and who will energetically carry them out in the interests of all the people.

2. We demand that all elections shall be honestly conducted and declare that the cause of good government and the future happiness and welfare of the people of Kentucky is inseparably bound up in the suppression of all abuses and crimes against an honest ballot, that have so unfortunately disgraced our state under Democratic rule, depriving the people of their rightful heritage—representative government.

The law for registration certificates imposed on the state by the Democratic party for immoral political purposes, whereby votes in Kentucky have become negotiable instruments, passing by delivery, ought to be repealed.

3. The judiciary of the state, in both the circuit and appellate courts, should be chosen on non-partisan grounds and the continuance in office of faithful judicial public servants should be determined by no other qualification than fitness.

4. There should be complete publicity concerning the expenditure of money for political campaigns and a law should be passed providing for an accounting by candidates and campaign managers of all sums of money collected for political purposes.

5. We demand the redistricting of Kentucky in legislative, senatorial, congressional and judicial districts, which shall give equal representation and equal voting power to every citizen of every district in conformity with the plain requirements of the Constitution, and not as at present, in flagrant violation thereof.

6. There should be prompt and efficient enforcement of the criminal laws of every kind, and at all times, but especially at this time do we call for the rigid enforcement of the law against those forms of crimes which under the recent administration of justice, in many communities, have gone practically unpunished. Election thieves, gamblers, pool-room operators and others who commit crimes in the interest of those controlling the local administration of some of our cities and counties, should be punished, and the juries should be so selected as to prevent the packing of juries for the purpose of securing verdicts in accordance with the wishes of those in whose hands the selection of the juries is placed, or under whose control and direction they are selected.

7. We demand that the books, vouchers and accounts of all municipalities, all public officers and public institutions, and of all corporations in which a city of the state owns the majority interest, either directly or through subordinate corporations, trustees or commissioners, shall be open to inspection and investigation at all times by any citizen and shall be regularly audited and the results published by an independent accountant, who shall not be eligible to re-examine such books, vouchers or accounts twice in succession.

8. We demand a reform in the management of our public eleemosynary and penal institutions, to the end that they shall be operated by bi-partisan boards, upon proper business principles, and their inmates treated humanely.

9. We favor the enactment and enforcement of a uniform local option law with the county as the governing unit.

10. We demand that the public schools of the state shall be taken and kept entirely out of politics and that the interests and welfare of the children shall have first consideration in all public school matters.

We call for better schools and school houses, for longer school terms in the country and better pay for the teachers, and that elections for school trustees be had on different days from other elections.

11. We favor amendments to state laws permitting and encouraging joint nomination of the same candidate by the different parties.

12. We condemn the law, passed for immoral political purposes, creating the racing commission in Kentucky and demand its repeal.

13. We condemn the enactment by the Democratic party of a large number of obnoxious tax laws and the creation of useless offices as the reward of partisan service, and we promise, if given power, to repeal all such laws and reduce the taxes to the lowest possible rate consistent with an efficient administration of the state government.

Conclusion.

For years past the legislation enacted by the Democratic party and dictated by certain of its leaders, has not been for the benefit of the citizen, but of the officeholder. The chief aim of such legislation has been the continued holding of office, and the creation of new offices to be traded in as rewards for party service.

The citizen is at least realizing, as never before, that the administration of public affairs is a business that comes close home to him; that such business must be honestly and efficiently conducted and that his ballot should not be cast as a matter of sentiment, but for that candidate or that party which shows the highest capacity for properly conducting the affairs

CALEB POWERS

Mr. Willson Emphatically States His Position In Answer to Mr. Hager's Question.

Will Guarantee Powers Fair Trial.

"I will not dip the good old Republican ship into the mire of dirty politics by allowing myself to be dragged into the Powers controversy in this campaign for good government in Kentucky," resolutely and emphatically declared Augustus E. Willson, the Republican nominee for governor, in his speech at Barbourville, to a crowd estimated at 3,000 persons, all neighbors and town folk of Caleb Powers, and all keyed up to the highest tension of expectancy as to what Mr. Willson would say in reply to Mr. Hager's quotation propounded at Lexington.

"All that I can promise you," he added, "is that if I am elected governor of Kentucky Mr. Powers will have a fair and honest trial before a fair and impartial judge and a non-partisan jury, and this applies to all men under indictment in connection with the Goebel affair, who will come back to Kentucky for trial when I send for them."

"All of these men will have a fair trial if it is the last act of my life, and in order that there may be no charges of favoritism made, they will be tried before a Democratic judge if I find that he is the best man fitted to perform this important service to the state."

"Mr. Hager, in his speech at Lexington, said that he would not pardon Mr. Powers. I won't promise you that he will be pardoned. I do not consider it fitting for any lawyer to tell the people what he will do in advance of a trial and record. If he makes such a promise he will appeal only to the unworthy passions of men."

"Mr. Hager, in the miserable rancor of party hatred has seen fit to drag the matter into this campaign, and I throw it back into his teeth and resent the implication that I or the Republican party would release Mr. Powers without a fair trial and a fair record of the case. And we have the right to assume that he has not had a fair trial because a Democratic court of appeals has had their say so."

"If you elect me governor I pledge you to observe my oath of office, the Constitution and the law as becomes an officer of the law, a gentleman and Kentuckian. No man may ask me if I will pardon him if he is guilty. I am a full grown man, no child, and have the nerve to say right here before you just what I will do and no more."

MR. HAGER'S PLATFORM

In his opening speech at Lexington Judge Hager said:

"I do not, therefore, come before you with a perfunctory platform, formulated by a few leaders and languidly adopted, without debate, by a meagerly attended convention, but with one that has been made and approved as their own, by the direct untrammeled votes of thousands of my fellow-Kentuckians for whose consideration it was presented."

In other words, this is the official platform of the Democratic party and its candidate. This being true, we desire to call attention to the fact that this platform contains eleven planks and not a word is said concerning the temperance question, which is the paramount issue in Kentucky. Judge Hager professes to be a temperance man. Why does he not endorse the cause of temperance in his platform?

In striking contrast, we call attention to the utterance in the Republican platform:

"We favor the enactment and enforcement of a uniform local option law, with the county as the governing unit."

It is apparent that Hager is attempting to carry water on both shoulders. He announces that personally he is in favor of temperance. This is done to catch the temperance vote. He then announces his party platform, that he made himself, and in which there is not a syllable about temperance. This is done to catch the liquor vote.

The people of Kentucky cannot be deceived in this matter. They prefer to accept the honest, candid statement of Mr. Willson, who clearly defines his position without subterfuge or evasion.

The state machine used the machinery of the party and the public patronage in such a way as to defeat Blackburn. It remains to be seen whether the party machinery and the patronage trough can be employed to defeat the will of the people this fall.—Henderson Gleaner (Dem.)

The Democrats of Kentucky have placed a tax on everything, from a lemonade stand to a dog. And yet they claim that taxes have been reduced.

Mr. Bruce Manning Ringo, who gave his age as 21 years and Miss Ethel Worthington, sweet sixteen and then one, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony yesterday morning in the private parlor of the County Clerk's office by his Honor Judge C. D. Newell.

The doting, happy and youthful pair were as innocent as two cooling little turtle doves when they appeared in THE PUBLIC LEDGER office to receive the unanimous congratulations of all, from chief guy to the little devil, who happened to be sitting up on a fence in the Sixth Ward about that time o' day.

The happy couple are both residents of Dover the groom being a son of James E. Ringo, and a former employe of THE LEDGER. The bride is a petite brunette and is a sister of Levi Worthington of this city and a daughter of Mr. John Worthington of Dover.

The bride's brother John accompanied her here and gave her away.

HALL—STRAVE.

Mayville society was surprised, indeed, and the watchful reporters and gossipers scooped.

Mr. James H. Hall and Miss Enlaiane Strave were united in marriage July 25th, 1907, by the Rev. Gervaise Roughton, Pastor of Wesley Chapel in Cincinnati.

Mr. Hall and his charming bride have been enjoying their honeymoon away from Mayville and the announcement of their marriage last evening came as a great surprise to Mayville society.

It is said the bridal couple will return Friday and take up their abode in the beautiful Hall residence in West Third street.

The groom is too well known to need an introduction in a community where he was born, raised and has spent his life. He is now at the head of the James H. Hall Plow Works, and is one of the city's progressive business men.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Felix K. Strave, and is a graduate of this year's Commencement of Millersburg Female College.

THE LEDGER joins with their many friends in extending best wishes for their future happiness.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clear and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health.

The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Picard's Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap. Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, always heat rash, stops chafing and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

Hurrah for Major Means of Mayaville!

Mrs. Julia Millon and little Miss Olive Arthur are on the sick list.

A few of our citizens attended the Robison circus at Mayaville recently.

Cland Cleary came near dying last Sunday night at Church from heart trouble.

Carl Doyle and brother, Leslie, visited at Bluebank last Saturday and Sunday.

Maeon Bigelow is quite low with dropsy of the heart. No hope for his recovery.

"Doc" Boling came in from Hamilton, Ohio, last week, where he had been for some time.

Mrs. Will Davis and children of Lewisburg visited W. G. Martin and family over Sunday.

Several from this vicinity attended the basketball-meetings at Goddard and Brushy Fork, Sunday.

Walter Carpenter and family of Trinity visited relatives here last week and attended the G. A. R. reunion at Petersburg.

Minda Lon and Charles, two bright little children of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Martin have diphtheria; also a little child of Tom Coffey.

Walter Millon and Frank Whistman, who have been down with typhoid are getting along nicely with Dr. J. B. O'Rannon of Mt. Carmel the attending physician.

Mrs. William Fearin has returned from Adamsville, Ind., where she was called by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Joe Tolar, who was just alive at last accounts, with drop-y.

Died, since our last report, Uncle Alfred Kegley, aged 78. He had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Lightner, since the death of his wife 12 years ago. Interment in the Martin Cemetery.

This vicinity was thrown into quite an excitement last week, when it was rumored that the body found floating in the river at Mayaville the 5th was that of Howard Reynolds of this place, now employed at Portsmouth, O. Later the report was found to be false and then THE LEDGER of the 6th confirmed the report to be false.

I. O. O. F. AT ST. PAUL

Sovereign Grand Lodge in Session—At Denver in 1908.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Sept. 15th, 1907.

The Public Ledger: This Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows is a great gathering of prominent American citizens drawing upon all callings in life's activities for representatives. Not only are there American's but her outlying possessions as well as Canada and her provinces. The annual session will begin tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and will continue in session until Saturday at noon, when it will adjourn until the third Monday in September, 1908. I think I see the shadow of Denver, Col., arising which will beckon the body to the middle West for that session. Representative Gandy, one of the most astute politicians in Colorado and a few years ago a formidable candidate for U. S. Senate, is marshalling the forces and booming Denver and it seems from an early view that that city will sweep away all opposition and gain the honored prize. The Kentucky Delegation is a strong one, composed of Hon. Milton J. Durham, Past Grand Sire, of Lexington, Claude Buckley of PeeWee Valley, J. Witt Potter, a Banker of Bowling Green, Judge John Gaunt, the L. and N. Attorney, from Louisville, and Hon. William H. Cox, whom we all know so well. I am struck with the sentiment of this whole Grand Body in its solicitude for the election of Mr. Cox. The Southern Democrats particularly, who know him so well and have always found him such a splendid man, would throw away party issues were they in position to vote for him. They know the man, they know that in elevating him to office the whole people would be benefited and affairs administered regardless of any spirit contrary to good government. Take the Kentucky delegation named and not a man will vote against Cox. Certainly such loyalty and favoritism for him among these ought to inspire confidence and zeal in our home and county citizens to have them rally to the support of a fellow-citizen of worth and character; but I had not intended injecting so much of this nature in my letter. The railroads of the country refused a low rate and the gathering of the clan is small. Wednesday is the parade and a big one it will be. These two cities are big and beautiful and are advantageously situated and in time will be united, and with a million inhabitants. The new State Capitol is superb, founded upon generous plans, financed with opulence and executed with absolute regard to public utility, the aesthetic sense and for all future possibilities.

The situation is the crest of a hill and the grounds surrounding are very beautiful and spacious. Nature has done wonders for this country and the artist has come along to make the charm entrancing so that waterfall and hill, valley and river, together with splendid avenues and boulevards bordered with great business houses and magnificent mansions, together vie to entice the tourist for sights or further appeal to the settler for a permanent habitation. But with all this when I think of my beloved Kentucky and know that within her confines lie all these and a hundred times as much more I simply wonder, how it is possible for us to keep people out.

Then Kentucky, O! Kentucky! with her hills of metaled ore; her forest tall and stately; her water falling roar; with wealth and fame and outstretched arm, you beckon every tribe and welcome all the Nations with a pardonable pride.

For with the dawning of the day when caste and cheat have fled, you'll stand triumphant over your woes, reincarnated—not dead.

I got THE LEDGER. It was like a summer breeze laden with the perfume of a June rose.

RIVER NEWS.

The gage marks 10.1 and falling.

Over 2,000,000 bushels of coal have passed Mayaville the last few days.

Boats have been taking a goodly number of visitors to the State Fair at Louisville this week.

The heavy fogs have put the Cincinnati-Pomeroy packet schedule out of business. The boats are coming and going on the best time they can.

The low stage of water caused a number of towboats en route up the river to tie up. The Valiant and Sam Clark are at Safe Harbor, Coal City at New Cumberland, Alice Brown at Steubenville and the Duquesne at Captina.

The Government finds it necessary to prevent water lilies from obstructing navigation. At Plaquemine, near New Orleans, the steamer Ramos is in the bayou clearing out the lilies. The New Orleans Item says: "So thick and strong has become this growth that they easily bear the weight of a man and, when driven into a compact form by the wind, will bear the weight of a cow or horse."

Captain Gordon C. Greene, Superintendent and General Manager of the Greene Line, just back in Cincinnati from Point Pleasant, says that the Greene Line wharfboat is about completed, and that she will be towed to Cincinnati the latter part of this week. He reports that the hull of the H. M. Stanley, which sank at Gallipolis Island, has been dropped down the river to a good place and beached. The company has not as yet decided what disposition will be made of her hull.

Destroys Parasites and Germs.

Our heavy sale of Kreso Dip last year warranted our ordering in much greater quantity this season, and we have just received a large invoice. It is the most effective disinfectant, parasiticide and germicide for farm use yet produced.

KRESO DIP

has been thoroughly tested in laboratory and in field work and has proved never failing. It is useful in treating all skin diseases of animals, for disinfecting stables, poultry houses, kennels, etc. In proper dilution for use it is harmless to all higher animal life.

AS A SHEEP DIP

It will pay any sheep raiser well to use Kreso Dip freely. It improves the wool and general condition of the sheep. Comes in one gallon cans and is used so greatly diluted as to cost but a trifle.

OVERTAXED

Hundreds of Mayaville Readers Know What It Means

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Mayaville citizen tells here a certain cure. Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blue Run Turnpike, West End, Mayaville, Ky., says: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint which came on every few months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory.
